

First Meeting 9/17/18

- Desiree gives initial spiel about making this club about the members, tailoring it to everyone's wants
- Dietary restriction piece
- Gauge of majors in the room:
 - Mostly anthro
 - HPS
 - Advertising
 - Psychology
 - Public Policy
- Overview of goals of the club
 - Resource for students
 - Place for anthropologists/people who even know what anthro is
 - Plans for after undergrad
 - Connections to faculty, grad students
- We have a member who joined the navy after her mother told her "you'll never get a job with an anthro degree"
- Emphasis on "this is your club"
- Make friends here! Social events: come to meet people.
- What do people want? Don't have concrete plans yet because we want to tailor to interest. Ideas from people include:
 - Good interest for hearing from grad students
 - Not much interest in panels
 - Application of anthro in internships
 - Field school internships
 - "Unorthodox anthro jobs" (corporations, different applications of anthro)
 - People want anthropologists!!
 - Ideas for minors that are complementary
 - Job opportunities for people without advanced degrees
- Social ideas
 - Potential field trips: UMich archaeology museum, Henry Ford
 - Coffee hours, bowling at the union
 - Just Dance/video game tournament
 - Cider mill visit
 - Indiana Jones marathon/"Anthro movies" (National Treasure)
- About half freshman/sophomores
- We need a new website!!! Many members don't have don't have Facebook and had a hard time finding info about the meeting.
- Overview of upcoming events
- Parking at home football games??
 -