In accordance with federal regulations, and MSU and CSS policies, the Department of Anthropology requires all graduate students engaged in research to complete training in the Responsible Conduct of Research (RCR). First year students are required to complete a minimum of five (5) hours of RCR training in their first year. Continuing students are required to complete a minimum of three (3) hours of RCR training annually. The student’s and advisor’s signatures on this form indicate the student has completed this annual requirement. Please attach the required Research Training and Tracking System (RTTS) documents to this signed form, and submit it to the ANP graduate secretary to be included as part of the student’s annual progress report paperwork.

Is this a first year student?  No ___________  Yes ___________

How many RCR credit hours has the student completed this year?  ___________ hours.

Is RTTS Documentation attached?  No ___________  Yes ___________

________________________________________________________________________

Signature of Student                        Date                      Signature of Advisor                      Date

________________________________________________________________________

Print Name of Student                        Print Name of Advisor