

First Year Plan of Study For Graduate Students in Anthropology

STUDENT: _____

ADVISOR: _____

Checklist for the first-year advisor

1. Meet with the student during summer or at orientation in order to:
  - a. identify potential language needs for fieldwork
  - b. discuss likely needs for methods courses beyond departmental requirements
  - c. review the department's requirements and fill out the preliminary plan of study
  - d. discuss any transfer of credits from Lifelong Learning programs or from other graduate study. The first year advisor must endorse any requests. The student must provide the Graduate Secretary with (1) a written request for transfer or waiver (2) a copy of each course syllabus (3) a transcript of the course grade (4) a note of endorsement from the student's advisor. These materials then go to the Graduate Program and Curriculum Committee for evaluation
2. Suggest possible future relevant courses, as well as faculty members that the student might consult with, both inside and out of Anthropology
3. The first-year advisor keeps a written record of meetings with their advisees, and provides a copy to the student and to the Graduate Secretary for the student's file.
4. The first year advisor should go over issues in the graduate manual, especially regarding mentoring and ethical research standards.
