

Field Voices: Share Your Anthropology Experience

We want to hear from you!

Showcase your student work and have it featured by the Department of Anthropology's Communications Office! You'll be featured on anthropology.msu.edu and the department's social media platforms (Facebook, Instagram, X and BlueSky).

- If interested, please respond to the questions below (either student experience or student viewpoint) and email Louise Henderson, Communications Manager for the Department of Anthropology at gradwoh2@msu.edu

OPTION 1

Student Experience Questions: Your response should be no longer than 250 words.

1. Describe your anthropology experience (past or present). (Examples: internship, study abroad, independent study, research, etc.) Please include the following if they apply.
 - a. Project goals
 - b. Completed/Current work
 - c. Components you enjoyed most
 - d. How has this experience prepared you in achieving your professional goals?

OPTION 2

Student Viewpoint Questions: Please select 1 to 3 of the following questions. Your response should be no longer than 250 words total.

1. How has studying anthropology changed the way you understand different cultures and perspectives?
2. Can you share an example of how anthropology has helped you critically analyze social issues? You can use examples from class or other academic experience.
3. How can your subfield help improve the lives of disadvantaged communities in today's rapidly changing world?

ALL STUDENTS:

Photo Request: Please attached a headshot and/or your fieldwork images to your email.

Please complete the following questions:

1. What inspired you to choose anthropology as your major or minor?
2. What year are you currently in school?
3. Hometown